LIFE COACHING

You're STRONGER than You Think You Are

We are all confronted with adversity, fearful situations, and challenges in our life that we wonder if we'll ever be able to handle. In this class, we'll discuss principles to help us cope with these situations and will be encouraged to draw on the strength we have and is available to us from our Savior. We are strong!

Standing Up in a Sit-Down World

We live in a world that promotes apathy. We will discuss how to boldly stand for truth and righteousness in the latter-days and to make a difference by actively doing good. Each of us is capable of amazing influence and leadership in the latter days.

Eliminate the Three C's: Comparing, Conforming, and Competing

We will discuss the negative impacts of comparing, conforming, and competing and how to reduce them in our lives. We'll explore ways to see the truth in ourselves and in reaching our destiny.

Making a Difference In Our Community – You Can Even Change the World!

We will discuss the Prophet's emphasis on serving our neighbors and on being an influence for good in our communities and how this fits in with this part of our lives.

Get Control of “I’m SO Busy, I Don’t Have Time For That!”

We will analyze how we use our time and how to add new learning and risk-taking into our lives. There will be specific emphasis on choices and trying new directions. We will discuss conscious direction of our lives.

Finding Tranquility—Even in the Midst of Turmoil

We live in an incredibly stressful time and our lives are enormously busy. It's very difficult to find tranquility and peace in the latter days. We will discuss how to nourish our soul and lift and improve the quality of our lives as we seek out virtue.

HOME & FAMILY

Training Children to Be Independent

We'll discuss how to have a plan for training our children to be independent by age 18. This will focus on life skills and we'll discuss ways to get our children to work (beyond chore charts) and how to modify these as the kids get older.

Teaching Children about Money – Exposing the ATM Makes Money Myth!

Children need to learn to manage their money and we'll explore everything from allowances to jobs to saving for college or missions. We'll be discussing the practical how-to's involved in the process.

Ten Do's & Don'ts of Wifehood

We will discuss the unique role of being a wife with specific helps on what to do and on what not to do...

Ten Do's & Don'ts of Marriage

We will discuss marriage with fun, specific helps on what to do and on what not to do...

But How Do I Change My Husband?!?

We'll explore how to communicate with our husbands to cause change and how to change ourselves. We'll learn how to understand them and help them grow.

Teach Your Kids to Live by the Spirit

As we train our children, the most important thing they must learn is to live by the Spirit. We will discuss practical and positive ways to help them feel the Spirit, to grow their lives in that direction and to focus on Jesus Christ.

Preparing Your Kids to Serve Missions

We will discuss ten ways to prepare your kids to be great missionaries – starting at age 3! Will they be ready? It's up to the parents to help get them there!

RELIGIOUS TOPICS

Becoming a Zion Person: Where to Begin

In this class we will discuss becoming pure in heart and a “Zion” person. We will emphasize avoiding overzealousness and instead focusing on the simplicity of the gospel and steps we can take to improve our faithfulness.

Living in the Latter Days and Battling the Adversary

We have been sent here in the latter days as valiant spirits reserved to lead the fight against Satan. We'll discuss the practical applications of what that means to us in our lives. We'll answer the question, “What was I sent here to do in the battle?”

Being a Zion Church: It Can Start with Me

In this class we will focus on establishing principles of Zion within our Church environment. We will emphasize personal responsibility and focus on positive actions we can take to support our wards, leaders, stakes, and fellow members.

Well Done Thou Good and Faithful Servant: Amazing Lessons on Agency

In this mind-changing presentation, we'll talk about what true agency is and how we can live lives filled with the power of the plan of salvation

A Life of Meaning, Purpose, and Direction (women)

We will talk about how we can find the purpose in our lives, establish an inspiring direction, and hear stories of women's lives with meaning. A truly inspirational and encouraging presentation for women.

Seven Steps to Becoming Like the Savior

We talk all the time about become more like the Savior. We will take a very practical and goal-driven application of this concept and translate this counsel into personal action so that we can become like Him step by step and hold ourselves accountable in the process.

Standing for Light and Truth in a Dark World

In the latter days, each of us will be called to stand up for truth. We will discuss the why and how of taking a vital stand for righteousness.

Gifts for Christ

We'll discuss several gifts we can give to Christ and how we can commit to these in our daily living. (Excellent adaptation for Christmas available.)

YOUTH

Becoming Independent: Mom Won't Do It Forever

We'll talk about what teens need to learn to be prepared to be independent adults and how to go about it. Finally – someone tells youth what to DO to get ready!

Shields Up!: Fighting Temptation and Staying Clean

We discuss understanding the how and why of fighting temptation with some analogies that will fix these principles in our minds. We'll have a very frank discussion about the importance of this fight and the blessings that can come. (Highly effective for Standards Night presentations)

Turning to the Light: Don't Go to the Dark Side!

We'll talk about how to use the Holy Ghost to guide us in standing for truth in a dark world and how to then lead others.

Don't Just Be Good, Be Good for Something!

We will learn specific ways to be an influence for good in our communities and how one person can make a tremendous difference in society.

SPECIAL TOPICS

Prison presentations

One of my favorite environments to speak is in prisons. I deliver messages of hope and encouragement that have had a profound impact.
