IDEAS FOR COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

We're so happy you're wanting to serve. Remember our motto from Gandhi:
"YOU must be the change you wish to see in the world!" Feel free to email me for help!
Happy serving!!! Always contact the organization FIRST to see what they want.

MAKE PROJECTS

Contact the local firestations and ask how many beds they have. Have the guys make quilts for the beds (using sheets and tying - easy.) and/or bake chocolate chip cookies for them and then deliver them to the firestations. They would LOVE that!!

Make T-shirt dresses

Crochet hats for kids in other countries

Contact local military base – make letters/cards for them

Make placemats for nursing homes or soup kitchens

Make CDs with singing or performing and give out to needy

Make hygiene kits – donate to LDS Humanitarian or shelters

Make baby layettes – donate to LDS Humanitarian or to local Life Choices Counseling centers

Make quilts – easiest is two sheets, batting in middle, tie with yard

Make book bags or simple backpacks

Make quillows – quilts that fold up to a pillow (directions on the internet)

Make TLC kits – small bags with goodies – lotions, books, jewelry – for women's shelters

Make kid packs – small bags with kids items for shelters

Make bedrolls (you use two old ties, an old blanket, and a square of fabric to make a pocket), etc.

Make birthday cards for seniors, shut-ins, nursing homes

Make a "New Kid" survival kit for new kids starting schools

Make a bookbag, put in a book and a CD of you reading the book and donate to schools

Make double-sided easels and donate overseas or local schools/shelters

MORE DO PROJECTS

Run a blood drive

Donate blood regularly

Take your family to help serve dinner one night at a soup kitchen

If you're a retired businessperson, volunteer for a group like SCORE

Call the local hospitals and see if they can go to the children's sections and read stories

Contact nursing homes - things to do there:

- Have a sing-a-long of the old songs (like You Are My Sunshine, etc.) and perform a few numbers.

- Offer to go in and record a short life-history (for privacy reasons, you have to leave THEM the recording when you're done so make them a CD). This is SOOO cool. Have a prepared list of questions: "Did you fight in the war?" "What would you have done differently?" "What was your BEST day?" "Tell me about your first job/school/etc.?" Very neat. Offer to paint nails, do hair, etc.

- Offer to conduct a craft session or activity, etc. Interaction is the key here - not just stand apart and perform.

- Remember, treats need to be sugar-free.

Contact the city to ask about low-income housing. Offer to go in and do a craft class for the children. A neat one is for them to make their own book - they do the pages. You staple the middle and voila! LOTS of fun and cheap!

Contact Habitat for Humanity and volunteer (they have a website).

Do a Scavenger Hunt for the food bank. Get a bunch of vans and trucks and go door to door with boxes and say "We're on a Scavenger Hunt for food. All donations will be given to the FoodBank." collect the food (NO PERISHABLES OR GLASS) and take it to the Foodbank.

Call the School District and ask if you can go clean up around a school. Take hoes, shovels, rakes, gloves and do some REAL clean-up work.

Contact the City and ask if you can adopt a park. Go in and clean it up and plant flowers!

A real fun one is to buy lots of flowers (6-packs at a plant nursery) and go around to all the seniors homes and just go plant the flowers. We did this one at night as a surprise for all the seniors and they were absolutely delighted. Just show up with bags of dirt and flowers and have at it!

Do 10 minutes life histories at the local senior center. Take in computers and a printer. Have a list of 5 questions. Type it up for the seniors and give them a printout. They would LOVE it!
